

Missions & ministry: Oklahoma Campers on Mission hold spring rally

>> by James Dudley, Campers on Mission

SHAWNEE—The Oklahoma chapter of Campers on Mission (COM) held its annual spring rally at the Expo Center in Shawnee, April 11-14, welcoming four new couples to the membership.

New members are Joe and Theresa Casper from Guthrie; Joe and Doris Drennan from Lindsay; Rea and Betty Sparks from Tecumseh; and from this last fall, Randy and Janie Brewer from Sulphur.

New officers were elected for the next two years. Paul Day now serves as president, and Joe Drennan is vice president. All other offices remained unchanged.

The speakers for Wed. evening, April 12, were Renee and Jerry McGovern, COM regional and national coordinators. On Thurs. evening, April 13, Dave Roberts of the Oklahoma Civil Air Patrol spoke.

For projects during the rally, the ladies spent their time creating 36 quilts and accompanying bags, and the men finished putting siding on McCloud, Emmaus Indian. Pastor Jerry Gray and the congregation were more than thrilled with the job.

Spring is the time when COM start getting busy. Those who would like to do an important job and have fun doing it should consider joining COM.

For information, contact Marianne VanZandt, Partnership and Volunteer Missions ministry assistant at 405/942-3800 ext. 4336 or mvanzandt@bgco.org.

To comment on this article, visit baptistmessenger.com.

>> PHOTOS: JAMES DUDLEY 1) Construction progresses as many work; 2) Reita Barnes works on a quilt bag; 3) Pastor Jerry Graves visits with Bob Martin; 4) Jack Hawken and Harold Poling trim the edge of a sheet of siding.