

OKLAHOMA CAMPERS ON MISSION
Spring Rally
May 12-15, 2010

Wednesday, May 12

Early arrivals gathered to eat at Golden Corral. After the meal, folks gathered at the Expo Center for an evening prayer meeting led by John Barnes and Jim Conley. Bob Martin talked about upcoming work at Glorieta. After prayer time, many stayed to enjoy games and visiting.

Thursday, May 13

The meeting began with prayer by Alan Adams. The morning session was led by Doyle Pennington, Director of Projects, from Midwestern Seminary in Kansas City. He discussed the building and remodeling projects planned for the future and how they have a real need for volunteers to come to assist in completing these projects.

After the early session, the ladies gathered to sew bears and coffee holders to be sent to troops in Afghanistan and Iraq in conjunction with the Hugs Project organization. Some of the men went to assist in cleanup at a ranch north of Shawnee and some went to other areas to determine what kind of assistance might be needed in areas damaged by tornados the previous Monday evening.

The evening meal was catered by T & D Catering. John Barnes lead in prayer before the meal. After group singing led by Bobby Burnett, the program was led by Ron and Doris Smithee of Harrah First Baptist Church. They displayed and explained American Indian artifacts they had collected. They demonstrated various musical instruments. We were adjourned with prayer by John Barnes

Friday, May 14

Morning devotionals were held in work/sewing groups. The ladies continued to complete the sewing project.

An afternoon session consisted of "My 316" training led by Ken Brassfield, Evangelism Pastor, Claremore First Baptist Church. He emphasized Evangelism training through using various tracts and devices and how he uses each one.

The evening opened with prayer by Bill Reed. The meal was catered by Regina's. After a delicious meal, Bobby Burnett lead the group singing. This was followed by songs by the OK COM Singers led by Ken Hudson. The program was a continuation of the Evangelism training led by Ken Brassfield.

Saturday, May 15

Opening prayer was led by John Barnes. This was followed by the OK COM famous covered dish breakfast. Our devotional was led by June and Burnie Tate who are back home from Peru. They discussed their various tours of service as well as what they did on each assignment. They were very informative. Glenda Davis gave a report of the sewing projects completed at Cross Timbers and Falls Creek. Bobby Burnett's told about his church going to Cross Timbers and their building bunk beds and the ladies deep cleaning the kitchen. They also replaced floor tile in the kitchen and dining area. Fran deCordova told how she and Ken were host and hostess as well as chaplains at the Golden Retrievers Conference.

Leon Whittington read two funny readings. This was followed by projects from Cross Timbers, Glorieta, Haiti, Gibson Baptist Assembly, etc. Upcoming projects include Newkirk beginning June 21; Midwestern Seminary, as people can go; Glorieta in the fall; the possibility of work in Wayland Iowa; and Claremore, possibly in August;

Business meeting began with reading of the minutes of the Fall 2009 rally. Alan Adams made a motion to approve the minutes and Paul Day seconded the motion. Motion carried.

John Barnes open the floor to nomination of officers. Leroy Ireton made a motion to re-elect the current officers for a second term. The motion was seconded. The motion carried with a show of hands.

Leroy Ireton made a motion that the meeting be adjourned. Second was by Glenda Davis. Motion carried. We were dismissed with prayer by Alan Adams.
