

OKLAHOMA CAMPERS ON MISSION

Minutes of Fall Rally

September 11-14, 2013

54 attendees

Wednesday, Sept. 11, 2013

The meeting for the evening opened with prayer by Marvin Smith. After the evening meal from Mazzios, the group shared prayer needs. Prayer was led by Marvin Smith. The list was posted on the bulletin board for additions and/or changes. Games and socializing followed.

Thursday, Sept. 12, 2013

AM: The ladies met in the sewing room to work on several projects. The men went to Pleasant Home Baptist Church to put up sheetrock.

PM: After prayer by Bobby Burnett, the group enjoyed a catered meal by Regina's. Next the COM singers led by Ken Hudson entertained the group. This was followed by group singing led by Bobby Burnett. Delbert Karnes discussed the chapel that he and some members of his church are constructing at the Mabel Bassett prison facility. He asked for assistance from any COM members who could help. He outlined the procedure for entering the prison and the method of handling tools. R. L. Quinton thanked the group for their prayers for Nancy during her cancer treatment.

The program on church safety was presented by Officers Robert McAtee and Chris Dudley from the Oklahoma Military Department assigned to the Air National Guard. They discussed the DARE program. Closing prayer was led by Joe Becker.

Friday, Sept. 13, 2013

AM: The men and women continued working on their projects.

PM: The business meeting was held in the afternoon before the evening meeting. Marvin Smith asked for prayer requests and led in prayer. Jim Conley told about the Derby Hills Baptist Church project in Loveland, Colorado. Twelve couples worked 2000 hours. He also told about working at Dibble for 400 hours. New projects include Ft. Supply on October 5. Windows need to be put in the church as well as the parsonage. The project sponsored by Lawton East Baptist church schedule for the third week of October 3, 2013 depends on whether there is a clear title on the buildings by September 27, 2013. Another upcoming project is Gibson Baptist Assembly building a 30 x 60 foot building. Probable dates are the last of October or first of November. Jim also told about the Camp Gruber project. He also said that Sam Porter needs in putting things in the RVs that Baptist Disaster Relief has bought to provide housing for victims of the spring tornadoes. In addition, Jack McKalister has a full church build beginning September 30, 2013 that he needs help with.

A discussion was held concerning the most appropriate time for the evening meals. Suggestions were for 6:30 as well as 6:00 pm. One suggestion was to have the singing at 6:00 and the meal at 6:30. Paul Day made a motion to have the Executive Committee determine the best schedule. Delbert Karnes seconded the motion. Motion carried.

The COM National Rally is to be at Glorieta, NM June 1, 2014.

Ken Hudson told about a children's camp at Lake Texoma that he and Jan worked at this past summer. He described the types of activities there and encouraged everyone to consider spending time at the camp.

The business meeting was adjourned with prayer by Joe Becker.

PM: Evening meeting.

After a catered meal, the group was treated to a presentation by Dr. Bruce Carlton, Missions Professor at Oklahoma Baptist University. He discussed his experiences living and ministering in various Asian countries and how he came to be at OBU. He discussed the development of a ministry and his experience as a minister.

Meeting adjourned with prayer by Joe Becker.
