

Okla. Campers on Mission hold Fall Rally

>> by Jim Dudley Campers on Mission P.R. Volunteer

SHAWNEE—The Oklahoma chapter of Campers on Mission held its annual fall rally at the Shawnee Exposition Center, Tues., Sept. 20-23.

Guest speaker at the Wed. evening session was Amy Isaac, who shared the struggles and triumph of her son Andrew's experience with childhood leukemia.

Sam Porter, Oklahoma Baptist Disaster Relief (DR) director, was the Thursday evening session speaker who gave a DR report of projects over the past year.

Mission projects at the rally went well, as men continued a mission at Macomb, Romulus, putting up sheet rock in the new Fellowship Hall and classrooms.

The ladies sewing project produced 10 blankets, 80 book bags, 11 pairs of boys shorts and 28 girls dresses.

For those interested in joining Campers on Mission, contact Marianne VanZandt, Partnership and Volunteer Missions assistant at 405/942-3000 ext. 4336 or mvanzandt@bgco.org.

To comment on this article, visit baptistmessenger.com.

PHOTOS: JIM DUDLEY

1) Campers on Mission volunteers put up sheet rock at Macomb, Romulus. On ladders are, from left, Ken Hudson, Ernest Bean and Paul Day. On the floor are, from left, Dennis Vanderburg and Bob Martin; 2) Carolyn Vanderburg and Nancy Quinton sew bags and shorts at the Campers on Mission fall rally.

