

Campers on Mission hold rally

>> by Jim Dudley P.R. Coordinator, Oklahoma Campers on Mission

The Oklahoma chapter of Campers on Mission (COM) met at its annual spring rally, April 12-15. Those who came were blessed as well as entertained.

Tuesday evening, Lois Kirkegard shared her testimony. Wednesday evening, ventriloquist Joyce Lee, with help from "Miss Ethel" and "Audie" kept everyone laughing.

Thurs. evening, April 14, speakers were Phil and Verlene Thurston, former missionaries to Bangladesh, or as Phil put it, "Next to Nowhere."

Also in attendance were regional representatives Jerry and Renee McGovern, who gave updated information on the National COM rally in June.

As always, COM combines meetings with projects. The men built two small walls, complete with doors, and also put up sheet rock at Chandler, Forrest. The ladies completed 18 quilts, 17 girls dresses, 10 pairs of boys shorts, six hats, one warmer and one stuffed bear.

Oklahoma COM is always in need of volunteers. If you would like to be of service to others and have a load of fun at the same time, you may contact:
